Everyone is welcome to come and pray for as long as they are able.

Get Your Kit On! Kate Burkett and Heather are running a three session course on 28th June, 5th July and 12th July for parents and carers of school-aged children. “School Kit” is a great (free) new DVD-based course created by TLG. Sessions have changed location, and will now be held in the Youth Room at Headingley with 7.30pm arrival for 8pm-9.30pm; refreshments will be provided.

Picnic Time with a chance to serve your Mission Community: On 15th July, Headingley Morning is planning to have a bring-and-share picnic at Beckett’s Park at 1.30pm (there is a free concert happening there from about 2.30pm onwards). After the service and before the picnic, it would be great if you are able to help set up for the Under 5s Summer Parties in the Hall, help is needed setting up tables, putting up bunting and blowing up balloons. We can then head to the park for the picnic. Part of the purpose of the picnic (and other lunches in the future) is to make Headingley a truly integrated congregation, across nationalities, ages and social backgrounds.– everyone is welcome. Wet weather plan will be to eat at church. Any questions, please speak to Scott Halligan or Richard Sykes.
